FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR AFRICAN EXPLORER SAFARI

Do I need a visa?

You must be in possession of a passport that is valid for at least six months after your return date and has at least 3 blank pages.

No visas are necessary for most countries but we do advise that guests contact their local embassy and make sure they don't need one.

What vaccinations do I need?

For South Africa no vaccinations are required however we recommend your tetanus to be up to date. Botswana, this is a low risk malaria area and the official advice is that guests contact their physician and take the necessary prophylactics.

Are hard hats compulsory?

Yes, hard hats are mandatory and you will not be able to ride without one. We can provide helmets, but suggest that clients bring their own. We do not provide half chaps but might have the odd pair extra should clients need.

What should I bring?

As well as comfortable riding clothes and your hard hat, we recommend the following; Bum bag, lip salve, strong sun protection cream factor 20 or higher, short boots and chaps. (Long rubber boots are not advised), swimming costume, light weight long sleeved shirts, light weight raincoat, camera memory cards and camera batteries. A good book.

What is the pace of the riding?

Guests must be experienced riders. They must ride regularly (at least once or twice a week) and be comfortable at a canter and gallop as well as being able to do small jumps should they have to.

What time are the road transfers?

Day 1 You will make your way to the information desk in the arrivals hall you will then be met at 10am and driven to the Horizon safari lodge for lunch.

Day 4 You will have a lite breakfast before departing the camp at 5.30am riding to The horizon lodge in time to transfer to Botswana arriving at the Botswana border at 11 in time for lunch and a good afternoon ride.

Day 8 you will have a short ride and brunch and will depart the Botswana camp by 11.am arriving at Johannesburg airport at 5pm. Should you need to arrive late or depart early a private transfer will be supplied at additional cost.

NB please book flights that arrive into SA no later than 9 am and depart SA no earlier than 7.30pm.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR AFRICAN EXPLORER SAFARI

Is there a laundry service?

Yes we offer a free laundry service at both locations, when packing do bear in mind that it helps not to have too much luggage in Botswana. We can normally turn laundry around within 24 – 48 hours (excluding the 30 or so days a year that it rains!)

What is the accommodation like?

A-frame tents with beds, sheets and duvets this is very comfortable camping. Each tent has an ensuite bathroom area with hot water showers (water heated on the fire and placed in a 15 lt camp shower when you are ready) Jug and basin hand wash facilities. There are flushing toilets at Camp Davidson in South Africa, whereas in Botswana toilets are long drop eco toilets.

Meals are picnic lunches and evening meals cooked around the fire.

Who will be guiding us in Botswana?

The Botswana operation is professionally managed and guided by owners Cor and Louise Carelsen who share a wealth of specialist knowledge of the African bush, horses and classical horsemanship with their guests, ably assisted by Botswanan guides.

What are the horses and tack like ?

In both locations The horses have been selected for their temperament and ride-ability. They have been carefully chosen from the various South African breeds, which are well known for being of a tougher nature - able to cope under extreme conditions. These breeds include the Boerperd, Shire Cross Thoroughbreds, Appalosas, and the S.A. Warmblood. They range in size from 14.3h. to 17h.

Tack in South Africa is McClellan trail saddles and English saddles in Botswana.
